

AND WE'RE OFF... TO A GREAT START!

Our 2020 conference season got off to a great start on January 28th with Leading Noble Men. Here are a few of the comments from pastors and leaders you impacted by praying and partnering with us to help churches disciple men!

I walked away with a renewed feeling that men need to not be afraid to be masculine and lead their families and be who they were meant to be.

I got a simple reminder of the importance of focusing much of my time and energy as a pastor towards men.

Stephen Kendrick's message about the importance and significance of one man, and his impact was very powerful.

Pastor Luter's framework using Jesus as the model for men's ministry was my #1 takeaway!

Church leadership should strongly consider how to reach more men in order to reach families.

I left this conference highly motivated to make disciples!

Friends, these are just a few of the many positive comments about the day! Thank you for locking arms with us to pray for this event.

Would you continue to pray with us???

- ▶ That these pastors and leaders would follow through on their commitments to go back to their churches and disciple men well.
- ▶ That families would be reached, and marriages impacted as we help churches disciple men. There is a clear connection here!

MINUTE WITH MIKE

BETTERMAN®

I don't know a guy who doesn't want to be a better man. I talk to many younger men especially who say, "I feel like I'm missing something. I want to be a better man (husband, father or _____) but I don't know how. I didn't have a great example. I'm not sure where to start."

Sadly, many churches haven't done a great job of helping young men see Jesus in this light. And, our culture has done much to tarnish and taint the whole concept of manhood.

But, there's help on the way. Robert Lewis, who many of you know because of Men's Fraternity and Raising a Modern Day Knight, is leading a team to launch the BetterMan initiative. BetterMan will feature an 11-week curriculum specifically designed to connect younger men outside the church with seasoned men to explore God's original plan for manhood.

We're pleased to be helping pilot the launch of BetterMan here in Virginia and are praying that over 200 churches will launch BetterMan groups across the state this fall. Robert Lewis will be here on April 28th to host BetterMan training. Mark the date and check out NobleWarriors.org/BetterMan.

▶ Pray with us for God to raise up leaders and teams from over 200 churches who will make strategic investments in helping young men understand biblical manhood.

NW TEAM

JERRY OVERMAN has been a member of the Noble Warriors family since 2007. He has given and served in many ways over the years. If you've been to one of our conferences, it's very likely that Jerry handed you a SWAG bag.

What you haven't seen though, is that Jerry has served us all for the past 9 years as Noble Warriors' bookkeeper and treasurer. We are thankful for his hard work and dedication. Now Jerry is transitioning to a new role as a Partnership Advocate.

Jerry has explored various ways to give to Noble Warriors and other organizations and is going to help reach out to others who may be interested in tax-advantaged giving strategies. He's simply going to share his story of Kingdom impact through giving to Noble Warriors and offer ideas. (It's also important to recognize his wife, Andrea, who has led the charge with conference snacks and lunches over the past few years!)

PATTI LASSITER is a new member of the NW Team. She'll be stepping into to a bookkeeping role and helping us manage our growing breadth and depth.

Join me in thanking God for faithful partners and friends and asking Him to continue to pour out favor on this work!
